The Kaohsiung Export Processing Zone (KEPZ) where Emerging Display Technologies is located has on 28th March been officially renamed "Cianjhen Technology Industrial Park" (CTIP) which symbolizes that the park will go into the next new phase.

In the past, the KEPZ have led Taiwan through the glorious years of the economic with the world's first industrial and trade facilitation system. After nearly 55 years, in response to the trend of industrial development, Kaohsiung Export Processing Zone (KEPZ) has been renamed the "Cianjhen Technology Industrial Park" (CTIP), to turn over a new leaf of the development of parks.
